

Spencer Flint is a member of the Illimited LAB. He completed a Bachelors of Science in Mechanical Engineering at the United States Air Force Academy. His previous research experience primarily deals with the development of autonomous robotic vehicles, both of flying and ground-based varieties. Additionally, his major focuses were in dynamics and structures gained much of his experience on the USAFA Formula SAE Team helping design and test a new competition race car each year of undergrad. Currently he is conducting his Masters at the Aeronautics and Astronautics department of the University of Washington. Following successful completion of this degree, Spencer will attend pilot training at Sheppard AFB, TX to continue his career in the US Air Force as a 2nd Lt.